To our clients and friends:

We remind you that pursuant to the transitory articles of the Law to Regulate Financial Technology Institutions (the "Fintech Law"), on September 25, 2019 will expire the term that the persons who carry out operations regulated by the Fintech Law have to obtain or request the applicable authorization from the Banking and Securities National Commission in order for such person to continue with their operations.

In the event that the above-mentioned persons do not obtain or request their authorization to carry out the activities regulated by the Fintech Law no later than September 25, 2019, the same shall refrain from carrying out further Fintech operations and shall only carry out the acts relating to the termination or assignment of their Fintech operations, notifying such situation to their clients.

Please do not hesitate to ask should you have any additional query in connection with the information contained herein.
